

Valley of the Moon Camp 2012

United Cerebral Palsy of the North Bay

Come Camping With Us!

Please join us for the Valley of the Moon Camp, our overnight camp for adults with disabilities, Friday, June 1-3, 2012.

Located in Glen Ellen, California, Valley of the Moon Camp is surrounded by beautiful rolling hills of the Sonoma Mountain Range. At the heart of the camp is a large grassy meadow bordered by stands of redwood, laurel and oak trees. The dining hall, cabins and swimming pool circle the meadow.

Campers will be staying in cabins with centrally located bathhouses. Homemade family-style meals are served in the dining hall. The three-day camp provides environmental education, physical exercise, and social opportunities. Activities include group games, nature hikes, and campfire songs.
